

Chapter 3 – Subjects, Complements, and Objects

1) Each Latin sentence contains an English word in parentheses. Give the correct Latin form, remembering if the word is used as the subject, complement, or direct object.

2) Translate

Example: puer currit ad (Flaccus)

Answer: Flaccum; The boy runs to Flaccus.

1. (the daughter) in agro sedet.

2. puer (Scintilla) audit.

3. Horatia (into the road) currit.

4. Quintus (the farmer) iuvat.

5. Scintilla (food) parat.

Homework

6. Horatia (water) portat.

7. puer ad (the house) redit.

8. Flaccus (son) laudat.

9. (the girl) puerum videt.

10. Quintus (Argus) ducit.

11. (the farmer) eum videt.

12. puer ad (ground) cadit.

13. Argus (tired) est.